Washtenaw Community College

Course Repeat Limits
Students who have attempted a course twice must seek permission to register for the course again and may be subject to additional costs for that course. Below is more information.

The Permission Process
Students who have attempted a course twice or more will see this error when they attempt to register for it: Repeat Limit Error. To get permission to take the class, students must click on the error and explain why they seek permission to register again. Notification of approval or denial will be emailed to the student's WCC email address.

The Cost
As of the fourth time or more that a student takes a course, there will be a $200 fee (per credit hour) in addition to tuition.

Special Consideration for Continuing Students
As of Fall 2009 registration, students who have taken a course more than twice will have their next registration for the course count as their third time for purposes of the Repeat Course Fee. No fee would be charged for this "third" time. The fee starts with the fourth time.

Exempt Courses
PEA 115, all noncredit continuing education courses as well as credit courses designated as repeatable to a specified limit.

Audited, Withdrawn, Expired Incomplete
In addition to other courses on the student record, courses taken under auditor status, courses withdrawn, and courses with expired incomplete grades count toward the total repeat attempts.

Emeritus Students
Emeritus students are exempt from the Course Repeat Limits.