Answering your conference needs

A community college that is also your community center for training, meetings, conferences and special events.

WELCOME TO WASHTENAW COMMUNITY COLLEGE

T hank you for taking a look at the many options and services that The Office of Conference Services at Washtenaw Community College has to offer.

This brochure is literally the "Tip of the Iceberg" of the many different types of meeting spaces and services that WCC can provide. WCC is proud to be able offer their guests and clients some of the very best meeting space in the Ann Arbor-Ypsilanti area. With those meeting spaces comes a full array of support personnel from our Media Services Department to handle all of your audio-visual needs including pre-event consultations and on-site personnel to handle any last minute changes. We also have a great building staff that is very eager to lend a hand with decorations, and any usual or unusual set up designs. Not to mention our on-site catering partner which enjoys a reputation that many would envy.

But what stands us apart is the personalized, topnotch service you will receive from my office. We have a dedicated staff whose only purpose is to make sure your event goes just as you planned, or better. We also make it as easy as possible; one phone call is all it takes to get the ball rolling.

Our office would welcome the chance to discuss any of your event needs and provide a tour of our facilities!

Sincerely,

Patrick A. Downey, Manager Office of Conference Services Washtenaw Community College
