The Administration and the Association agree that the Administration will extend appropriate fringe benefits and leave provisions to unit members who do not already enroll a spouse in the health or other benefit plans and who elect to enroll one Other Qualified Adult for benefit coverage. A unit member may elect such coverage if all of the following eligibility criteria are met:

- The employee is eligible for benefits;
- The Other Qualified Adult, at the time of proposed enrollment, shares a primary residence with the employee and has done so for the previous six continuous months, other than as an employee or tenant.
- The employee submits satisfactory proof of residence for the other qualified adult. The Office of Human Resource Management will maintain a list of documents that may be submitted for proof of residence.
- The Other Qualified Adult is not eligible for health insurance coverage through another employer.

The following individuals are not eligible for coverage as an Other Qualified Adult: The employee’s or the employee’s spouses:

- Parents
- Parents’ other descendants (siblings, nieces, nephews)
- Grandparents and their descendants (aunts, uncles, cousins)
- Renters, boarders, tenants, employees
- Children or their descendants (children, grandchildren)
These benefits will be extended provided that it is not contrary to law to do so. Should the legislature mandate economic sanctions against the College for taking this action, the Association will hold the College harmless for any such sanction. The Association agrees that if an economic sanction is imposed, the WCCEA salary schedules will be adjusted to compensate the College for any penalties or reduction in State appropriations.

LETTER OF AGREEMENT

BETWEEN

THE WASHTENAW COMMUNITY COLLEGE EDUCATION ASSOCIATION

AND

THE WASHTENAW COMMUNITY COLLEGE BOARD OF TRUSTEES

Developing and Teaching Online Courses

This Letter of Agreement supersedes the current Memorandum of Understanding “Distinctions Between College on Demand And Distance Learning” dated July 13, 2012, and is effective June 11, 2015.

Preamble:

The College is responsible for establishing and maintaining its programs. The Online Learning courses have been and will be developed by the College, through the Online Learning Department, and rely heavily on interactive content produced by the College, and material, possibly procured from other sources, that are offered to students in an online setting. For the purposes of this agreement all sections of these courses that are scheduled for online or blended delivery are understood to be Online Learning sections.

Moreover, recognizing that there are differences in the Online Learning sections does not in any way obviate the requirement of all sections to conform to and support the course description, content, outcomes, objectives, assessments, and evaluations as stated in the master course syllabus for the course.

Definitions:

1. The term “Online Learning” (OL) refers to a unique set of courses that are instructed either 100% online or in a blended, partially online format.

2. The term “Learning Management System” (LMS), which is currently Blackboard, refers to a software application delivery platform of online educational technology education courses.

3. The term “Content Management System” (CMS), which is currently Blackboard, refers to a computer application that allows publishing, editing and modifying content, organizing, deleting as well as maintenance from a central interface. The system also provides an avenue to manage workflow in a collaborative environment.

4. The term "structure" refers to the approved LMS course site template that is created by the College, in consultation with appropriate faculty committees.

5. The term "supplemental content" refers to additional subject matter elements to be added to a course which does not supplant faculty supplied content. This can include, but not be limited to items such as: Open Educational Resources (OER), publisher materials, vendor media, and/or educational media developed by the Online Learning Department.

6. The term "Interactive Content" refers to items such as animations, simulations, games, other graphical media and computer generated learning objects.

Having agreed upon the definitions, we illustrate the language for Online Learning (OL) courses by referencing the following.

OL courses:

1. The College, in consultation with the faculty, determines the need to develop OL programs.

2. The College, in consultation with the faculty, determines the OL courses to develop.

3. The College, in consultation with division deans, designates course developers for OL courses. If the selected course developer is a part-time instructor, the College, in consultation with division deans and appropriate departments select the full-time faculty leader for the course.

4. The College, in consultation with appropriate faculty committees associated with online learning, determines the LMS structure of the OL course design. The faculty developer, in consultation with the College, will determine the instructional delivery of the course, such as modules, units and lessons.

5. The course developer in collaboration with the College, will identify specific supplemental material, but such a request requires College approval on the basis of cost, availability, and management.

6. The College, because it is remunerating the course developer and using Washtenaw Community College labor, assets and resources for the creation of the course, retains full ownership of the following elements for the purpose of College instruction.
   a) Interactive content developed and maintained by the College
   b) Images and graphics developed and maintained by the College
   c) Web pages developed and maintained by the College
   d) Videos and screen captures developed and maintained by the College
   e) E-text materials that are developed and maintained by the College

7. The College, because it is remunerating the course developer and using Washtenaw Community College labor, assets and resources for the creation of the course, retains shared ownership of the following elements for the purpose of College instruction.
a) Document materials, such as assignments, assessments, lecture notes, e-texts and labs, created by the course developer that are attached to the course-site.

b) Photos, imagery and graphics created by the course developer that are attached or embedded into the course-site.

c) Web pages created by the course developer that are linked, embedded or attached to the course-site.

d) Videos and multi-media created by the course developer that are linked, embedded or attached to the course-site.

e) Content that was developed in the process of course creation between the faculty developer and the College, which the faculty developer continues to edit and maintain following successful completion of the development contract.

8. The College will give course developers, prior to their agreement to develop a course, a full description of the project milestones for the course development.

9. Faculty who teach OL sections are obligated to use the course design, the supplemental materials, and so forth that have been prepared for the OL section. OL faculty may tailor their specific section via individual modifications to the quizzes, tests, papers, discussion questions, that are part of the course. Faculty must seek approval from the contracted faculty leader of an OL course to remove content from a course site.

10. Faculty who teach OL sections agree to use a College approved and supported learning and/or LMS and/or CMS. Faculty may utilize a publisher's learning management system which must have its own technical support available 24/7 to college employees and students, although the publisher's materials are required to be accessed through the College's supported LMS and/or CMS.

UA Summer Training Program

In recognition of the United Association's (UA) long-term and substantial commitment to Washtenaw Community College and our community, and notwithstanding Section 0011, Equal Application of the Contract, of the Master Agreement, the undersigned parties agree that UA members, hired as part-time instructors for the UA Summer Training Program, may be paid up to the maximum instructional overload rate (as defined by Section 0108.2 of the Master Agreement). Furthermore, the College may reimburse UA members for usual and customary expenses related to their travel and housing in the Ann Arbor area for the purpose of teaching in the UA Summer Training Program.

This action constitutes the entire agreement between the parties, and it shall not be considered precedent setting in any way.

Part-Time Faculty Specialized Pay Rate

In the event any division or department of the College proposes to offer a credit or noncredit course or training for which special course development or teaching credentials are required, the College may hire part-time faculty at a specialized rate of pay if the following criteria are met:

1. The proposed rate of pay is the usual and customary rate of a person with the credentials and experience of the proposed faculty member.

2. The proposed specialized rate is submitted for review to the Vice President for Instruction along with the credentials of the proposed faculty, a description of the course to be taught, and documentation supporting the specialized rate of pay.

3. A part-time faculty member may be hired, without review by a special committee, at a rate not to exceed the top full-time faculty overload rate, rounded up to the next five dollars ($5.00).

4. Should a request be made to pay a rate greater than the above rate, the Vice President for Instruction shall notify the President of the Association of the request, stating the rate to be paid, the given justification of the rate, and the duration of the current commitment. Should the President of the Association have questions regarding the rate, they may notify the Vice President for Instruction and/or convene the Contract Implementation Committee to discuss the issue. If, after review of the materials submitted by the administrator, the Contract Implementation Committee determines that the specialized rate of pay is not justified, the specialized rate may not be paid for any services performed beyond the duration of the current commitment.
This action constitutes the entire agreement between the parties, and it shall not be considered precedent setting in any way.

Contract Training

The undersigned parties hereby acknowledge that to implement a Contract Training program (as defined herein), certain provisions of the Master Agreement between the Board and the Association need to be modified.

Definition

Contract Training describes a type of educational service provided by the College under written agreement (a contract) to a corporation, company, or group. Three qualities distinguish Contract Training from all other types of educational services that the College provides.

Contract Training involves a written agreement between the College and the client to provide specified educational services to a specified audience for a specified time period. This training may range from offering a presently existing course to creating a training program from scratch. Training may be credit and/or non-credit offerings.

Contract Training involves delivering training to a specific group of individuals who actually function as a third party in this enterprise (the College and the corporate client being the first two parties). Thus the College administration negotiates with representatives of a corporation (e.g., corporate trainers, attorneys and/or personnel officers) to provide educational services to some third party (e.g., a group of that corporation's employees).

Only those persons (the third party) approved by the first two parties (or one of the first two parties) may receive the services. Persons identified by the client (i.e. the corporation) receive priority admission into a course or program.

Contract Revisions

Notwithstanding the applicable provisions of the WCCEA Master Agreement, the contract revisions listed below shall be permitted. These modifications shall cease upon the expiration of the present Master Agreement unless explicitly negotiated into the subsequent agreement.
Contract Revisions

Part-time faculty members may be employed for Contract Training assignments which exceed the constraints of Section 0107.1, but in these cases, part-time faculty members may not exceed an average of eight (8) contact hours per week for the academic year.

Contract Training assignments shall comply with the provisions of 0016 Performance Contracts, 0117 Faculty Schedules and Other Assignments, and 0210 Specific Involvement of the WCCEA Master Agreement.

Professional Faculty members involved in Contract Training as an overload assignment shall be paid at the rate of one and one-half (1 1/2) times the faculty member's overload rate for all hours worked in Contract Training Assignments on Sundays. A classified faculty member involved in Contract Training shall be paid at the rate of two (2) times the classified faculty member's hourly rate for all hours worked on Sundays.

Professional faculty members, who accept a Contract Training assignment as overload, may choose to waive the overload pay and instead "front load" those hours worked to a subsequent semester within the academic year in which they are presently working. Professional faculty members may not front load such an amount of this Contract Training work that the accumulated [front-load] hours would satisfy their teaching obligation and other responsibilities during any subsequent semester of that academic year (as per Section 011).

In response to a critical need to support departmental administrative matters, such as, but not limited to, the placing and tracking textbook, equipment and supply orders, monitoring area expenditures and keeping financial records when necessary, facilitating the application, authorization, re-authorization and timesheets for all part-time temporary non-teaching personnel, coordinating the production and distribution of departmental marketing materials, supervising special departmental projects and meeting accreditation and certification requirements and other administrative duties, the parties agree to implement the position of Program Manager as follows:

1. The Administration may appoint Program Managers to assist the department chairs and deans in their administrative duties. By agreement between the Administration, the WCCEA, and the department(s) involved, Program Managers may be assigned to assist in the duties of one or more departments with a corresponding reduction in the compensation of the department chairs.

2. If a Program Manager is assigned to assist a department, the department chair of that department, notwithstanding Section 0121.1 of the Master Agreement, will receive three hours of release time for the department chair duties and will not receive a department chair stipend. The department chairs will retain exclusive responsibility for representing the faculty on all curricular and instructional matters pertinent to their departments. In addition, the department chairs will have primary responsibility for 1) chairing department meetings and representing their departments in all internal and external meetings related to their departments; 2) represent their department in the development of the overall master schedule; 3) coordinating full-time faculty course selection and faculty departmental responsibilities; 4) working with the program manager to carry out the remaining functions of the department.

3. Faculty will have the opportunity to fully participate in the hiring process for Program Managers that support their department.
4. The Program Manager will report to the appropriate academic dean as determined by the Vice President for Instruction, but will coordinate their activities with the department chair(s).

5. Annual administrative evaluation of Program Managers will include formal input from the department chairs of the departments assigned a Program Manager. Such input shall have as its primary purpose the improvement of the Program Manager’s performance in assisting the department(s).

6. The compensation adjustment (3 hours release time) for chairs for those areas affected will be instituted at the start of the next Fall or Winter term.

7. The Association and the Administration are committed to working cooperatively to ensure that departments work effectively and efficiently to accomplish essential duties.

8. This Letter of Agreement applies only to current Program Manager Neil Gudsen, and shall expire, and be of no further force or effect, once Neil Gudsen no longer is a Program Manager.

The evaluation process and the PDE Appeals Committee

The evaluation process for Professional Counselors, Librarians, Service Personnel, and Classified Faculty remains the formal PDE process with the appropriate review for "following process" by the PDE Appeals Committee. The recommendation of that committee is sent to the President.

Although the evaluation process for professional teaching faculty does not use the PDE process, the evaluation process for professional teaching faculty does reference the PDE Appeals Committee. The evaluation process for professional teaching faculty follows the parameters set forth in Section 206 of the Master Agreement. [Note: the informal improvement plan usually initiated by SOQ flags is a possible precursor to the formal evaluation process.] Section 206.1 describes a thirty (30) calendar day period between the distribution of administration determined criteria and the implementation of those criteria for evaluation. It is mutually agreed that during the first fifteen days (15) of said thirty (30) days, the faculty member being evaluated may request a review of the process followed by the administration to that point. Such a review, requested in writing by the faculty member to the Associate Vice President of Human Resource Management, will be limited to procedural issues and will be conducted by the PDE Appeals Committee in a timely manner but so as to produce a recommendation within the original thirty (30) day period. In particular, this review process will not delay the evaluation process. The recommendation of the PDE Appeals Committee will be sent to the Vice President for Instruction for consideration and corrective action if necessary.

In addition, it is mutually agreed that it will be mutually advantageous to have all formal evaluations that result from an unsuccessful informal improvement plan start in the Fall semester. Formal evaluations originated for reasons outside of the informal improvement plan process may start at any time. A professional teaching faculty member who was in the informal process in a Fall semester and who remains on informal review will not be eligible for overload in the subsequent Winter semester. A professional teaching faculty member who was in the informal process in a Winter semester and who is either remaining on informal or moving to a formal evaluation process will not be eligible for overload in the Spring/Summer semester. In any case, professional teaching faculty members on second or subsequent continuous semesters of informal improvement plans are not eligible for overload. It is the desire of both the Administration and the Association to not extend informal improvement plans beyond two full semesters of teaching, except in cases where there is no practical alternative.

If at the end of a “full semester” of formal evaluation the Dean determines that the professional teaching faculty member needs to remain under formal evaluation, then the faculty member may request a review of the process by the PDE Appeals Committee. [To be a “full semester” of formal evaluation, the evaluation must be in use starting with the first teaching day of the semester.] The request for review is to be sent in writing to the Associate Vice President of Human Resource Management no later than the first reporting day of the next semester. The PDE Appeals Committee will meet to consider the issue as soon as possible thereafter. That committee will quantitatively review the objective goals and their appropriate measures as set forth in the Dean’s statement of criteria. Criteria that are of a subjective nature will be reviewed to be sure that they were evaluated and that an explanation of their evaluation has been given. The PDE Appeals Committee will not review or judge the Dean’s determination of the meaning of the evaluation of subjective criteria. The PDE Appeals Committee will send its recommendation to the Vice President for Instruction for consideration and corrective action if necessary.

After at most two full consecutive semesters of formal evaluation and based on the results of that evaluation, the status of the Professional Teaching faculty member shall be resolved in one of the following three (3) ways:

1. A return to normal status;
2. A return to an “informal improvement plan”, without access to overload; or
3. Recommendation for termination.

The Administration and the Association agree that the following language shall define and apply to the P.D.E. Appeals Committee:

PDE Appeals Committee (AC)

1. A standing Faculty PDE Appeals Committee (AC) shall be established. The membership of the AC shall be determined annually by January 1 of each year. The AC shall be composed of seven members serving one-year terms, three of whom are chosen by the President of the College, three of whom are chosen by the WCCEA, and one of whom is mutually agreed upon by the college President and the WCCEA. One alternate from each of the three categories shall also be selected. The college and the WCCEA, in accordance with established procedures, shall appoint co-chairs. Neither the faculty member requesting the appeal, nor the respective dean conducting the evaluation may serve on the AC to hear an appeal in which they are the principals.

2. Procedures involving the PDE Appeals Committee are related to the classification of faculty.

For Professional Teaching Faculty:

As noted above, Professional Teaching faculty have two (2) appropriate instances where they may submit an appeal to the AC. The first is during the “thirty (30) day period” between the distribution of administration determined criteria and the implementation of those criteria for evaluation. The second is at the end of a “full semester” of formal evaluation in the case that the Dean determines that the professional teaching faculty member needs to remain under formal evaluation. The responsibilities of the AC in both cases is outlined above.

For Professional Counselors, Librarians, and Service Personnel, and Classified Faculty:

Also noted above, the evaluation process for Professional Counselors, Librarians, and Service Personnel, and Classified Faculty remains the formal PDE process with the appropriate review for “following process” by the PDE Appeals Committee. The details of the AC involvement in this case is given below where reference to “faculty member” means Professional Counselor, Professional Librarian, Professional Service Personnel or Classified Faculty.

a. Steps of the Appeals Process

All appeals must first be processed through the Informal Appeal Step, the Formal Appeal Step, and the Reconciliation Step. Faculty members may only access the grievance procedure after exhaustion of remedies available under the Informal and Formal Appeals Steps. Complaints filed under the grievance procedure shall be initiated at Step II of the grievance procedure.

b. Informal Appeal

Within five (5) teaching days of the receipt of the formal evaluation document, a faculty member who disagrees with the dean’s written PDE statements or judgments may first discuss the matter with the dean. If the dean does not respond to the concern or a resolution is not reached within five (5) teaching days, the faculty member may move the concern to the Formal Appeal step.

c. Formal Appeal

If a disagreement remains after the informal discussion, the faculty member may prepare a written statement to the concern, which shall be attached to all copies of the PDE document. The written appeal must be presented to the Appeals Committee (AC) within ten (10) teaching days after the dean’s oral response to the concern.

The faculty member making the appeal shall clearly state in writing what is being appealed and the date of the faculty member’s receipt of the PDE statement. The actual evaluation or other documents shall also be sent to the AC. Copies of the evaluation and the appeal notice shall also be sent to the Vice President for Instruction and to the President of the WCCEA.

The AC shall examine all pertinent materials relevant to the concern and will normally interview the faculty member and the dean. The AC may also require the faculty member and the dean to provide any additional information related directly to the evaluation.

The AC shall produce a written report of its findings. The report shall include a summary of the committee’s activities and reasons for its conclusions. A minority report may be submitted. The report(s) shall be sent to the College President. Copies of the report(s) shall be sent to the Vice President for Instruction, the WCCEA President, the faculty member and the respective dean.

The AC report shall become part of the official college records and shall be maintained in the Human Resource Management office.

If the Appeals Committee fails to complete its report within twenty (20) teaching days after receiving a specific appeal, the faculty member may move the appeal to Step II of the grievance procedure.
d. Reconciliation
After receipt of the Appeals committee report, the dean and faculty member shall meet to determine if there is a basis for agreement in light of the AC report recommendation. If the matter is not resolved within five (5) teaching days, the faculty member may move the appeal to Step II of the grievance procedure.

e. Grievance Procedure Appeal
If the faculty member is dissatisfied with the outcome of the reconciliation conference, they may file the appeal at the Second Step of the grievance procedure (Section 00802.2). Appeals to the grievance procedure must be done in accordance with the terms and conditions of the WCCEA Master Agreement.

f. Time Lines
It is the intention of the parties to adhere to the time lines outlined above. However, these time lines may be extended by mutual agreement of the parties.

g. Final Resolution of the Dispute
The final resolution of the dispute at any phase of the process must be communicated in writing.

Faculty Evaluations

The WCCEA and Board of Trustees recognize that the College is primarily a teaching institution, and that teaching plays a central role in the responsibilities of instructional faculty. The BOT and the WCCEA agree that:

A. Section 0206, in its entirety, of the Master Agreement is separate from and not related to the Faculty Evaluation described herein.

B. All reference to the evaluation of full time professional teaching faculty in the Letter of Agreement: Evaluation Process and the P.D.E. Appeals Committee are hereby removed.

C. The implementation of the SOQ process is outlined in the SOQ Implementation document. The SOQ Implementation document may be amended by mutual agreement and any such amendment shall be effective under this Letter of Agreement.

D. The WCCEA and the Board of Trustees remain committed to supporting the improvement of professional teaching performance through reasonable accommodations.

E. The processes described below, termed the SOQ Evaluation and Curriculum & Assessment Evaluation, are in addition to all other evaluation items in the Master Agreement.

The SOQ Evaluation:

1. Applies to all full-time professional and adjunct faculty.

2. Student Opinion Questionnaires shall be administered in every section of every class.

3. All full-time professional and adjunct faculty will be held harmless under this new evaluation system for at least one year from the date this letter is signed. Both parties agree to undertake an evaluation of the new system during that period. The resultant evaluation system will not take effect without joint consent, executed through a Letter of Agreement, between the College and the WCCEA.

Curriculum and Assessment Evaluation:

1. Applies to all full-time professional teaching faculty.
2. Each faculty member will complete one master syllabus revision and one assessment activity (course or program) within a two-year evaluation period. The two-year evaluation period will begin and end on the first day of In-Service of the Fall Semester. The “Curriculum and Assessment” portion of this Letter of Agreement is considered to have been in effect since August 18, 2015.

3. Each faculty member will identify the proposed curriculum and assessment work via a departmental activity planning form that will be submitted by the department chair and approved by the division dean at the beginning of each two-year evaluation cycle. The proposed curriculum and assessment work of each faculty member will meet the minimum requirement outlined in Paragraph 2. No faculty member can be directly assigned a specific course for curriculum or assessment duties by a supervising dean. Priority should be given to courses that are overdue for curriculum and assessment updates.

4. The departmental activity planning form will be updated at the beginning of each fall semester.

5. Assessment should precede master syllabus revisions if possible.

6. More than one faculty member can assume responsibility for a program or course assessment if such joint collaboration is approved by their division dean. Courses that are eligible for more than one faculty member to assess would include courses with a large number of sections and/or courses with an inherent complexity in the assessment of that course.

7. Faculty who qualify for joint assessment must submit an outline of the specific duties and responsibilities that each individual faculty member will complete. The outline shall be approved by the division dean. Any faculty member working on a collaborative joint assessment will not be penalized and/or reprimanded if the duties and responsibilities of the collaborating faculty member are not met and/or impedes a completed assessment.

8. Any faculty member who does not complete both the required curriculum and assessment work minimum within the two-year evaluation cycle defined in Paragraph 2 shall meet with their dean within two weeks of the start of the semester and submit a plan of completion for the required work. A grace period of one semester shall be given for completion of the work. Failure to submit the required work by the end of the grace period may result in disciplinary action under the provisions of Paragraph 0205 of the Master Agreement.

Optional Evaluation Program

Faculty may voluntarily participate in an alternative Professional Review and Self-Reflection process to be piloted beginning in the Fall 2016. This process will be developed by the Faculty Evaluation Committee which will continue to be comprised of three faculty representatives, two academic deans and the Vice President for Instruction. Faculty volunteering for and completing this pilot process will satisfy the college’s Evaluation of Performance requirements for a two-year period. Faculty volunteering for this pilot will be required to administer the SOQ, but no “flags” shall arise from this practice. They also will be required to participate in the Curriculum and Assessment process outlined above.
Components of the alternative process may include, but are not limited to the following:

1. Administration and reflection on the results of the Student Opinion Questionnaire (SOQ).
2. Completion of a Performance Effectiveness Self-Reflection
3. Two observations of the faculty member's teaching: one peer observation and one administrative observation

The parties reaffirm their continuing commitment to the confidentiality of the faculty evaluation results. Student responses, curriculum and assessment completion, and SOQ results may be used only as outlined by this Letter of Agreement, by the SOQ implementation document referenced above, or as required by law, unless written student comments describe a situation of a serious nature (such as harassment or other problems in which the college might be held liable) that require investigation by the dean or VPI. Such comments and subsequent investigation, if any, would not constitute a "flag."

This action constitutes the entire agreement between the parties, and shall not be considered precedent setting in any way.

Professional Instructor Year-Round Professional Responsibility

The undersigned parties agree that Section 0110 Duty Hours: Professional Instructors 0110.2 is understood to include if for any reason a Professional Faculty member becomes separated from employment with the College prior to the beginning of the new academic year their salary will be paid through the last date worked. It is agreed faculty have a year-round professional responsibility which includes a base load teaching assignment for Fall and Winter semesters. Professional Faculty members will be available to participate in the business (non-instructional duties and/or activities) of their program, department, division and/or the college between the end of the Winter semester and the start of the subsequent Fall semester, especially when such work would benefit from faculty input and/or leadership as determined by administration.

Example 1) Professional Faculty member retires May 1, 2016; their pay will be through May 1, 2016 and not the totality of the Winter assignment record.

Example 2) A Professional Faculty member will attend and participate in a meeting or workshop to discuss changes to the student learning outcomes associated with programs in their academic department when scheduled during the summer months with the understanding that there must be flexibility in scheduling those meetings as the period between the end of the winter semester and the start of the fall semester is a period when faculty schedule vacations and other personal and family obligations.

This action constitutes the entire agreement between the parties and it shall not be considered precedent setting in any way.

DATE
The undersigned parties agree for the purpose of earning required education graduate credits ensuring the employee is qualified in accordance with HLC Assumed Practices to continue to teach courses as they were hired to teach or, in the alternative, to continue to teach courses the College has assigned them to teach at any point in AY 2013-14 - AY 2016-17, a tuition reimbursement eligibility benefit is granted to all full-time faculty identified by the College as not meeting HLC’s faculty certification requirements. The tuition reimbursement benefit is for up to a total of eighteen (18) graduate course credit hours completed by August 28, 2018, or for those faculty receiving notification from the College that they do not meet HLC minimum requirements subsequent from the date of this letter, by within two years of such notification by the College.

The faculty member’s program of study must be approved by the Vice President for Instruction. It is understood that submitted plans are subject to change for any number of reasons, to include changes in course offerings at institutions of higher learning, faculty health, and family issues. It is further understood that those changes may necessitate the extension of this benefit beyond the dates outlined above. Such changes must be approved by the Vice President for Instruction, but he or she is to take a very liberal view when considering those changes.

Tuition reimbursement is for tuition only and does not include reimbursement for fees, books, or other related expenses. Regardless of institution attended, tuition reimbursement will be based on in-state graduate tuition cost at Eastern Michigan University (EMU). These employees are not required to attend EMU.

In lieu of tuition reimbursement, faculty may select to receive one hour of reassigned time for every credit hour for which they are enrolled, to a maximum of six (6) hours of reassigned time in any base load semester. Faculty will not be eligible to teach classes that are solely overload in any semester in which they receive release time rather than tuition reimbursement.
Tuition Reimbursement Process: Tuition reimbursement will be awarded upon submission of original receipt of tuition payment. Receipt must be submitted within six (6) weeks of payment of tuition.

Continued eligibility for this program is contingent upon verification of grade “B” or better for graduate courses as noted on an official grade report or proof of successful completion of course.

If a faculty member voluntarily terminates his/her employment with the College within one year of receiving his/her last tuition reimbursement, the faculty member will be financially responsible to repay the College 100% of the amount of tuition reimbursement under this Letter of Agreement.

This one time action constitutes the entire agreement between the parties and it shall not be considered precedent setting in any way.

Adjunct Faculty Tuition Reimbursement

The undersigned parties agree for the purpose of earning required education graduate credits in order to ensure that they are qualified in accordance with HLC Assumed Practices to continue to teach courses as they were considered qualified to teach when they were appointed to adjunct status, a tuition reimbursement eligibility benefit is granted to all adjunct faculty identified by the College as not meeting HLC’s faculty certification requirements. The tuition reimbursement benefit is for up to a total of twelve (12) graduate course credit hours completed by December 31, 2018, or for those faculty receiving notification from the College that they do not meet HLC minimum requirements subsequent from the date of this letter, by within two years of such notification by the College.

The faculty member’s program of study must be approved by the Vice President for Instruction. It is understood that submitted plans are subject to change for any number of reasons, to include changes in course offerings at institutions of higher learning, faculty health, and family issues. It is further understood that those changes may necessitate the extension of this benefit beyond the dates outlined above. Such changes must be approved by the Vice President for Instruction, but he or she is to take a very liberal view when considering those changes.

Tuition reimbursement is for tuition only and does not include reimbursement for fees, books, or other related expenses. Regardless of institution attended, tuition reimbursement will be based on in-state graduate tuition cost at Eastern Michigan University (EMU). These employees are not required to attend EMU.

Tuition Reimbursement Process: Tuition reimbursement will be awarded upon submission of original receipt of tuition payment. Receipt must be submitted within six (6) weeks of payment of tuition.

Continued eligibility for this program is contingent upon verification of grade “B” or better for graduate courses as noted on an official grade report or proof of successful completion of course.

Adjunct faculty who voluntarily fail to maintain their adjunct status to the end of the next full academic year (Fall, Winter, Spring/Summer) following the last semester during which they participated in the program outlined by this letter will be required to payback in full all funds received.

This action constitutes the entire understanding between the parties, and shall not be considered precedent setting in any way.

Substitution for Instruction

The undersigned parties agree to the following addition to the Master Agreement between the WCCEA and Washtenaw Community College:

1. There will be a 30-hour (total) limit on substitution for instruction in the Fall and Winter semesters of any academic year.

2. Those faculty who attain the 30-hour limit but who remain below the semester maximum of 315 hours will be able to sub to the semester maximum.

3. Subbing in the Spring/Summer semester will be limited by the requirements of Paragraph 0108.4 of the Master Agreement (total teaching limited to a total of 21 hours per week).

4. This Letter of Agreement will take effect on May 8, 2017.

This letter constitutes the entire agreement between the parties and it shall not be considered precedent setting in any way.
